

Priti Patel MP

by Anthony C Heaford

Priti Patel MP is a British member of parliament and the government's incumbent Home Secretary. She is also a facilitator of international terrorism - allowing the financiers of 9/11 terrorist Khalid Sheikh Mohammed (KSM) free rein to operate from their London headquarters Longulf Trading.

The screenshot shows the 'Projects & Business Development' section of the Longulf Trading website. A black box with yellow text is overlaid on the page, stating: 'This London based company provided material support to Khalid Sheikh Mohammed's terrorist cell operating in Yemen' and 'Longulf Trading is a subsidiary of the multi-billion dollar Hayel Saeed Anam (HSA) Group who also provided material support to terrorists'. Below this, a red box highlights the text 'We Are Longulf'. To the right, two icons with text describe the company's experience and its authorized logistics service provider, Yemen Gulf Line (YGL).

I know of Longulf Trading's terrorism links because in April 1997 I met their executives in Chicago when they were buying printing machinery to furnish Khalid Sheikh Mohammed's front company in Yemen. I was also the technician sent to Yemen in September 1997 to install that machinery. KSM's front company was located inside the Hayel Saeed Anam (HSA) Group's headquarters compound at PO Box 5302 Taiz. Longulf Trading is a subsidiary of the HSA Group, its London office, opened in 1977.

The screenshot shows a Google Maps navigation app interface. The start location is 'SIS Building, Vauxhall, London' and the end location is 'Longulf Trading (UK) Ltd, Prince Albert'. Three route options are displayed:

Route	Time	Distance
via A41 Fastest route now due to traffic conditions ⚠️ This route has tolls.	24 min	5.2 miles
via A3213 and A41 Some traffic, as usual	26 min	5.1 miles
via A4200 Congestion on A501 causing 6-min delay	30 min	5.6 miles

The map shows the route passing through central London, including Hyde Park and the Royal Courts of Justice.

In October 2019 I wrote to the British Home Office to inform them that Longulf's terrorist activities were being deliberately ignored by British police. I advised her specifically that Greater Manchester Police were actively protecting Longulf Trading from investigation:

TERRORISM: British Police are PROTECTING terrorist financiers

To: public.enquiries@homeoffice.gov.uk, Cc: Office of Graham Brady,

F.A.O. Home Secretary Ms Priti Patel

Ms Patel

I can prove that Greater Manchester Police (GMP) are actively protecting the terrorist financiers of the group known as al Qaeda. They are doing this by failing to formally acknowledge my reports of the London company Longulf Trading having financed & facilitated al Qaeda.

Today I have been removed from the Prevent [terrorism] register by GMP after they admitted making false allegations against me. They have also formally acknowledged that I have worked in al Qaeda's operational areas.

Please find my report and evidence on this matter published on my website here:

I expect and anticipate your urgent attention to and action upon this report.

Ms Patel's Home Office reply can be summarised as "not our problem". The British Home Office refused to investigate allegations of police corruption, protect those who provided material support to terrorism.

Dear Mr Heaford

Thank you for your email of 24 October to the Home Secretary. As I hope you will appreciate, the Home Secretary receives a large amount of correspondence and is unable to reply to each piece individually. Your email has therefore been forwarded to the Direct Communications Unit and I have been asked to reply.

I should explain that the police are operationally independent of Government, and that it would not be appropriate for Ministers or officials to comment on, or intervene in, a specific case, investigation or complaint. This is to ensure the police can carry out their duties independently and make decisions free from political influence.

The best way to make a complaint is to contact the police force involved. Police force

The British Home Office, under Priti Patel's command, thinks that a British police force protecting terrorist financiers by fabricating allegations against whistleblowers does not fall under her responsibility. I disagree and believe that action makes Ms Patel guilty of both misconduct in public office and of facilitating international terrorism - specifically the financiers of 9/11 terrorist Khalid Sheikh Mohammed.

Also on November 5th 2019, the date of Patel's Home Office's reply to me, the BBC published this story about secret orders that allows British security services to direct their 'informers' (mostly criminals) to commit the most serious of crimes, including murder, without having to even refer the matter to the British judiciary:

The screenshot shows a BBC News article. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'BBC' logo, a search icon, and menu items for 'Home', 'News', 'Sport', 'Weather', and 'More'. Below this is a red banner with the word 'NEWS' in white. The main headline is 'Power to commit crimes 'critical' for informants, MI5 lawyers say'. The byline reads 'By Dominic Casciani, Home affairs correspondent' and the date is '5 November 2019'. The sub-headline is 'Rules letting MI5 informants commit crimes are "critical" to national security, lawyers for the Security Service have told a court.' The main text begins with 'MI5 is fighting an attempt to disclose secret guidance its officers can authorise informants to take part in crimes and not tell prosecutors.' A highlighted paragraph states: 'Signed by former Prime Minister David Cameron, the directive confirmed for the first time that MI5 officers could allow their recruited informants and agents to commit crimes in the national interest, without any duty to tell police and prosecutors what had happened.'

And it was Priti Patel who within a year of my correspondence with her Home Office decided to enshrine in law the power of our security services to authorise criminals under their control to commit crimes up to and including murder:

The screenshot shows a document titled 'Covert Human Intelligence Sources (Criminal Conduct) Bill'. Below the title is a horizontal line, followed by the text 'EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS'. A highlighted paragraph reads: 'Secretary Priti Patel has made the following statement under section 19(1)(a) of the Human Rights Act 1998:'. Another highlighted paragraph states: 'In my view the provisions of the Covert Human Intelligence Sources (Criminal Conduct) Bill are compatible with the Convention rights.' Below this, there are two sections: 'Criminal conduct authorisations' and 'Authorising authorities'. Under 'Criminal conduct authorisations', there is a numbered list item '1 Authorisation of criminal conduct'. Under 'Authorising authorities', there is a numbered list item '2 Authorities to be capable of authorising criminal conduct'.
